Harvest Festival...

Don't Let the Bakery Boogie Go Bust!

The Harvest Festival is tomorrow night! Thanks to everybody who has signed up to help out with it -- we promise that you'll have a great time. One of the most popular events at the Harvest Festival is the Bakery Boogie. This year, we are in danger of having the world's shortest Bakery Boogie as only SIX baked goods have been turned in so far. So, if you have forgotten to bring something in, please do so! Bring your baked good (heck, it can be a bag of Chips Ahoy) to school tomorrow. Or, for the true procrastinators among us, (this writer is the poster child for that), bring it to the Harvest Festival tomorrow night! Thanks!!

Last Call for Silent Auction Items...

Speaking of procrastination...(again, this writer speaks from all too much experience...) the deadline for turning in auction donations was October 15. If this has fallen off your radar, let this serve as a gentle reminder! The catalog is going to press next week and we'd like to include all of our donors in it. Our friendly auction ladies will be making reminder phone calls next week...

Also, please don't forget to RSVP as soon as possible! Seating is limited and tickets are NOT available the night of the auction.

Thank you, Sally Foster Volunteers

Thank you so much to the following individuals for their help with the "Sally Tally" this past Saturday: Lee Brammer, Carol Cirocco, Micki Goodeill, Jean Jablonski, Sheila Mousel, Luanne Barnes-Nelson, Paul Nelson, Mike Powers, Caryn Ricks, Julie Rogers and Paula Stageman. Special thanks to Luanne and Paul for hosting the activity at their home again this year! Without the help of each of you, our job would have been so much more difficult! Kudos, and thanks again for helping to make this fundraiser a success!
